WAGE CUT FOR 400,000 RAIL WORKERS: STRIKE OF MAINTENANCE MEN LOOMS

SOLDIERS OF GENERAL CHANG IN MUTINY

HARBIN, MANCHURIA, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The soldiers of General Chang Tso-Lin along the Chinese Eastern railroad, have mutinied and declared in favor of General Wu Pei-Fu, who defeated Chang in the recent battles around Peking. Almost the entire railroad is in the hands of troops who have revolted against the Manchurian dictator and are supporting General Wu.

Severe fighting occurred at several stations along the railroad, resulting in the defeat of Chang Tso-Lin's officials. The mutiny is spreading among the civil employees.

MUKDEN, MANCHURIA, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—General Chang Tso-Lin has been urged to return to Mukden immediately to restore order in Manchuria. He has been warned that General Wu Pei-Fu's troops are threatening to invade Manchuria and cut Chang's communications in the rear unless General Chang returns, it appears his authority will be jeopardized as civil strife is developing in Manchuria.

PEKING, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Thirty thousand of General Wu Pei-Fu's troops are pushing northward and the intention of occupying Manchurian territory, say wireless advices from military sources at Chinwangtao. The possibility of an advance on Mukden, capital of Manchuria, and seat of General Chang Tso-Lin's independent government, is indicated. One division of General Wu's forces is following the railroad connecting Tientsin and Mukden, and another traveling over land, has passed Jehol, moving in the direction of Chin-chowin, Manchuria, 150 miles from Mukden.

Dr. Wellington Koo, who arrived here yesterday, following the resignation of Dr. W. W. Yen as foreign minister, has been offered the portfolio vacated by the latter, but has not yet been accepted.

On Displaying the Flag Rules as Given by the American Legion Weekly

Here is the special rule for flying the flag on Memorial Day, and a number of general rules which should always be observed as a matter of etiquette.

ON MEMORIAL DAY

On Memorial Day half-mast the flag until noon. From noon to sunset fly from top.

Always in half-masting the flag first run it to the top of the mast. Also run a half-masted flag to the top before hauling it down.

IN BRIEF

Remember the Stars and Stripes always claims the place of honor, the forefront, the right, or the highest elevation. The colors should never touch the ground or the deck of a boat.

DON'T—

- use the flag as a handkerchief.
- sew the flag onto a sofa pillow.
- twist the flag into fantastic shapes.
- use the flag in advertising.
- let the flag touch the ground.

In the horizontal position, the starry field should be at upper left.

Vertically, the field should be at upper right.

In parades, the Stars and Stripes always hold the place of honor, the right or the forefront.

GERMANY BOWS TO POWERS; SEEK LOAN

PARIS, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—A courier bearing the German government's reply to the reparations commission, was on the way to Paris today. Unofficial forecasts here were that Germany would accede to all the demands made by the commission on condition she be granted an international loan on reasonable terms.

The commission's demands were agreed upon the recent negotiations here between the commission and the German finance minister, Andreas Hermes. They include provisions for the virtual detestation by the entire of measures for the reform of Germany's financial affairs.

WHEAT PRICES DIVE

CHICAGO, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Wheat prices made a sensational dive today, the May delivery plunging downward 1 1/4 cents a bushel as compared with quotations earlier in the session. May went as far down as $1.18 3/4 and for the first time this year sold at a lower price than July.

Subsequently general selling developed and with aggressive support absent, prices underwent a rapid fall.

Although the market had a wide range throughout the day, it was not until shortly before the close that the net change in price as compared with Saturday got beyond ordinary limits. Late in the day, however, it became apparent that the traders had been recently attempting to hoist prices, had taken a different tack and were endeavoring to unload their holdings by selling the July delivery and also, though less openly, disposing of their holdings of May.

As soon as this became evident, general selling set in. The only buying appeared to be from traders who were short and when they finished the market fell under its own weight.

Today's extreme fall brought May wheat down nearly 31 cents a bushel from the highest level touched only a few weeks ago.

SHIPS CRASH; ONE SINKS

PORTLAND, OREGON, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Six firemen asleep in the forecastle of the Furness-Prinze Line's 2,322-ton cargo steamer Welsh Prince were killed and three injured late last night, when, according to meagre reports here, that vessel was rammed by the freighter Iowan in the Columbia river off Astoria, Washington. The Welsh Prince sank within 30 minutes and the Iowan, a 5,547-ton freighter, operated by the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, was sinking slowly according to last reports.

The Welsh Prince left Seattle yesterday for the Orient with a full cargo of lumber. The Iowan was in bound from New York, her home port. A wireless message apparently from the Iowan, although unsigned, reported early today:

"Lying alongside, attempting to put out fire on Welsh Prince."

The message was taken to indicate that the Welsh Prince was not submerged completely and that her upper works were afloat. The message said the sinking vessel would proceed to Portland when the fire was extinguished.

The tug Onocenta went from Astoria to the Iowan's relief. A report from the Port Stevens wireless operator added that the Welsh Prince was resting on the bottom and that her boilers apparently had exploded of the craft above water was an fire.

The men killed were said to have been new members of the Welsh Prince's crew taken on before the steamer left Portland.

Pleasure Boat Escapes Storm

PENSACOLA, FLA., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The pleasure boat Swan, with about fifty persons aboard, missing throughout the night, reached her dock here today with all hands aboard safe. The vessel ran into a gulf storm late yesterday, but tied up on the other side of the bay until it was safe to proceed back to Pensacola.

Secret Night Session Of Klan Reported

COLUMBUS, O., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Police Saturday and yesterday received scores of telephone calls from residents of the north side telling of secret and unformed meetings of the Ku Klux Klan in the early hours of last Saturday morning at Indianola Park.

Klan officials denied such a meeting had been held, but reports continued to pour into police headquarters telling of men garbed in sheets and pillow cases.

Today members of an Ohio State University fraternity admitted having held an early morning dance and pow wow at the park Saturday morning in connection with initiation activities and the police have discontinued their investigation.

ORGANIZED BASEBALL SCORES VICTORY

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Organized baseball as conducted by professional clubs under the national agreement, the supreme court held today, is not in interstate commerce and the clubs are not liable under the Sherman anti-trust law.

The decision of the court was a victory for organized baseball as against the claims of the Baltimore club of the defunct Federal League and set aside the verdict of the District of Columbia supreme court awarding the Baltimore club damages of $240,000 against organized baseball.

Justice Holmes in rendering the opinion of the court declared that personal efforts not related to production are not interstate commerce. A lawyer sent to another state to argue a case is not engaged in interstate commerce, nor is a chauntiqua lecturer engaged in interstate commerce, he added.

ULSTER AND SEIN FINN FORCES STAGE BATTLE

BELFAST, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Sharp fighting between members of the Irish Republican army and the Ulster special constabulary, occurred last night along the boundary between Counties Donegal and Fermanagh, in the Belleek district. Five Republicans are reported to have been killed and a number wounded. One constable was killed. The fighting followed the action of the Ulster police in taking possession of Belleek village and Magheraferry castle nearby.

Special police from the Belleek fort were ambushed and compelled to abandon their motor car, the driver of which was killed during the heavy firing.

Both wings of the Irish republic army, the insurgents and those under the free state government, are believed to have been represented in the force which the Ulsteries encountered. The southerners attacked in horse shoe formation, the only side open to the police facing on Lough Erne, across which they have been receiving their supplies by boat.

The Republicans' intention to cut this line of communication was followed by the northerners, who repulsed their assailants after a pitched battle.

The Culling Tree Road police barracks near Falls Road was attacked today. Several of the police were wounded, one seriously.

Semenoff Can Not Be Deported

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—General Gregorie Semenoff, Russian Cossack leader, whose deportation has been demanded by Senator Borah, of Idaho, for alleged brutalities perpetrated upon American soldiers in Russia, can not be deported from the United States, according to a decision transmitted today by Commissioner General of Immigration Hubbard to Secretary Davis.

General Semenoff was legally admitted to this country, the decision averred, and can not be deported unless an offense is committed by him against the government. The department will make further investigation, however, of all the facts relating to the case in order to be positively satisfied that no evidence whatever has been overlooked, it was said.

American Minister In Bulgaria May Demand Marines

SOFIA, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Charles S. Wilson, the American minister, is understood to have told the Bulgarian government that he might find it necessary to have a guard of American soldiers, in consequence of the difference of views between himself and the government concerning the sufficiency of police protection for the American legation during the present unrest.

Rail Board Orders Pay Cut Totalling $48,000,000

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Belief that a strike vote would be ordered by the executive council of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees and Railway Shop Laborers was expressed today by E. F. Gable, grand president of the organization, as the council went into session to consider the wage reduction ordered yesterday by the United States railroad labor board.

"The decision penalizes the workers and helps the railroads," and "it is another illustration of the influence of the railroad labor board,"

DETROIT, MICH., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—National officers of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees, planned to go into executive session at their headquarters here today to consider the reduced wage scale ordered by the United States Railroad Labor Board in Chicago last night. E. F. Gable, grand president of the organization, declared the board's action was a disappointment and that a reduction at this time was unwarranted.

CHICAGO, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Maintenance of way employees of the nation's railroads today face a $48,000,000 wage reduction, effective July 1. The railroad labor board last night promulgated the order which affects 400,000 men.

The order, the $400,000,000 slash of last July and pending orders affecting other classes, if they carry the same ratio of reductions will place railroad labor where it was before the $600,000,000 increase of May, 1920.

Impending decisions governing the wages of 500,000 railway shop men, 200,000 clerks, telegraphers, station employees and other classes, were expected to follow closely upon last night's order, which cut the pay of maintenance of way workers from one to five cents an hour.

With their settlement over working rules still pending, the "big four" brotherhoods and the switchmen are not yet involved in any wage dispute before the board. These classes received a 12 per cent reduction last July.

Immediate consideration of last night's order by the executive council of the United Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees was in prospect today, with the prediction by B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, that the decision will be rejected when submitted to a vote of the men.

Brotherhood officials characterized the cut as "indefensible," asserting that the case they presented to the board did not warrant the reduction.

The three labor members of the board returned a dissenting opinion to the order. The wage cut decision was signed by the three members representing the public and the three railroad members.

Money saved by the wage reduction.

Murphy And Mader Must Quit Council

CHICAGO, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Thomas Carey, mill-honing brick manufacturer, who obtained the release of Fred Mader, head of the building trades council, and "Big Tim" Murphy, following their indictment in connection with Chicago's bomb war and the slaying of two policemen, insisted today that the two labor leaders comply immediately with their agreement to relinquish control of the council.

Mr. Carey signed the bonds of Mader and Murphy on the sole condition that they would step out as leaders in the building trades. "Big Tim" readily agreed to the conditions, but Mader proved stubborn, asserting that the matter first should come up before the council next Friday.

"Mader gave me his promise to resign and assist in choosing his own successor," Mr. Carey said, "before a conference with the two leaders. If he refuses now to abide by his promise or if he allows the building trades council to re-elect him Friday, I'll surrender him to the sheriff and withdraw myself as his surety."

Some union officials expressed the preference of placing the whole Chicago situation before the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor at Cincinnati, June 8.

"Con" Shea, the other of the "big three" leaders, still was in the county jail, where he was taken nearly three weeks ago after the series of raids on the offices of the building trades council. Efforts to obtain Shea's release by a writ of habeas corpus will be made.

Trains Crash; Two Killed

CHICAGO, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The engineer and fireman of a west-bound California limited on the Santa Fe, were killed about four o'clock this morning near Fort Madison, Iowa, when the train crashed head-on into east-bound train Number 4. No passengers were injured, and only the engines of the two trains left the track.

Government Scores Victory In Hungary

BUDAPEST, May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—First returns from the Hungarian parliamentary elections indicate an overwhelming victory for the government. The Carlist, right wing or monarchist party is reported as crushed on the basis of these results, and it seems probable that the social Democrats will make a great gain. The election of 74 government and six opposition candidates is assured so far.

COAL COMPANIES LOSE SUITS

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The federal government is not liable for losses which coal companies allege they suffered during the war when compelled to sell coal at prices fixed by the government, the supreme court today held in a case brought by the Pine Hill Coal Company.

GOVERNMENT VICTORIOUS IN "TRUST" CASE

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—The government won today in the supreme court in its suit to have the Southern Pacific Company's ownership of the Central Pacific Railway declared unlawful.

The court in deciding the case—the last of the great trust dissolution suits brought to the supreme court—reversed the decision of the federal court in Utah, which had held against the government.

The decision of the supreme court, Justice Day stated, means that the Southern Pacific will be required to divest itself of all stock ownership in the Central Pacific lines or other control which it has held since 1885 by lease and 1890 by purchases.

"The Ruling Passion"

FROM EARL DERR BIGGERS' STORY IN THE SATURDAY EVENING POST
SCENARIO BY FORREST HALSEY—DIRECTED BY HARMON WEIGHT

THERE'S SOMETHING STRANGE ABOUT EVERYBODY

Yourself, your wife, your neighbor—Every person has some ruling force, some hobby—The incomparable George Arliss, greatest character actor of the day, in a rollicking comedy drama, pictures his version of a power that rules all men.

"A Distinctive Production"

Injuries sustained by Mrs. George Middaugh, aged 65, a life long resident of Greenup when a machine in which she was riding plunged down a 35 foot embankment near that village Sunday afternoon, resulted in her death in Marting hospital, Ironton last night. She suffered internal injuries, serious scalp wounds and a broken arm. She was unconscious when taken to the hospital and never revived.

Her daughter, Mrs. Isaac Dowdy, who with her husband, Isaac Dowdy and two children, were in the machine was also badly injured and may die it was stated at Marting Hospital, where she was taken soon after the accident.

Mr. Dowdy and children suffered bruises and lacerations about the head, arms and back.

The accident happened one mile southwest of Greenup. Mr. Dowdy was at the wheel of his machine and when it struck a very sharp curve in the road he apparently lost control of the car. It swerved off the road and plunged down a 35 foot embankment. It turned over three times and the bodies of all the occupants cleared the machine. Mrs. Middaugh and Mrs. Dowdy were found 20 feet from the machine. It was soon seen that they had been badly hurt and no time was lost in having them removed to the Ironton hospital.

There it was stated Monday that Mrs. Dowdy, who is in a delicate condition had regained consciousness but she is not out of danger, having suffered serious internal injuries in addition to a fractured right wrist.

Mrs. Middaugh, who for years conducted a restaurant on Washington street in Greenup, was well known in Portsmouth, where she leaves relatives. In addition to her husband she leaves three daughters.

Her body was returned to Greenup today and the funeral services will be conducted there.

The Dowdy machine was completely wrecked, the top being crushed like an eggshell and all four wheels were smashed.

S. S. S. Fills Out Hollow Cheeks, Thin Limbs!

Men and women—whether you will ever build yourself up to your normal, just-right weight depends on the number of blood-cells in your blood. That's all there is to it. It's a scientific fact. If your blood-cell factory isn't working right you will be run-down, thin, your blood will be in disorder, and perhaps your face will be broken out with pimples, blackheads and eruptions. S. S. S. keeps your blood-cell factory working full time. It helps build new blood-cells. That's why S. S. S. builds up thin, run-down people. It puts firm flesh on your bones. It rounds out your face, arms, neck, hands, the whole body. It puts the "pink" in your cheeks. It takes the hollowiness from the eyes, and it fools Father Time by smoothing out wrinkles in men and women by "plumping" them up. S. S. S. is a remarkable blood-purifier. While you are getting plump, your skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, acne, rheumatism, rash, tetter, blotches are being removed. The medicinal ingredients of S. S. S. are guaranteed purely vegetable. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical.

Commission Arranges Classy Boxing Card For June 5

A boxing card which promises to be the best matched boxing exhibition ever arranged in this section will be presented by the local Boxing Commission next Monday night.

The Commission has been busy for the past two weeks arranging the bouts and has left nothing undone that will tend to give the fans a high class show. A feature of the bill will be a double main bout of ten rounds each, featuring Nig Blair of Portsmouth and Steve Carter of Pittsburgh and Columbus at 140 pounds, and Frankie Wells, of Chillicothe against Brockie Chapman of Columbus at 130 pounds. Brockie Chapman is said to be one of the best 130 pound men in the state and has a great record. Steve Carter is a boxer of Blair's style and many local fans who have seen him in action are loud in his praises.

Kid Cook, who recently put up a great bout against Frankie Wells until he became a little careless, will attempt to show he is a real fighter by going eight rounds against Billy Trus of Springfield at 135 pounds. The opener will be a six round affair between popular Jack Major and Young Snell of Springfield at 130 pounds.

The sporting editors in the various cities have nothing but praise for the visiting boxers and the commission has been very particular in seeing that the boys who meet each other are well matched and of the same style in action.

The seats will be on sale in a few days at one dollar ring side and 50c general admission. These low prices are made possible through the commission holding up $400 during the last boxing match.

Estaline Nichols, two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nichols, of 1226 Thirteenth street, was so badly burned by scalding water Sunday evening that she may die as the result of complications that usually result in such a case. The burns were very severe and today half the outer skin had peeled off her body and arms. According to her attending physician it will be remarkable should she pull through.

The child was at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Williams, 1021 Fourteenth street, having been under the care of her grandparents since her mother was taken ill recently.

Last evening about 7:30 she went into the kitchen and asked her grandmother for something to eat and while she was waiting in the kitchen for this another member of the household poured scalding water into a tub. As the grandmother approached with something to eat for the child, the little one started clapping her hands and backed across the kitchen until she hit the edge of the tub and fell backward. She was jerked from the tub but not before the scalding water had covered more than half her body.

Her legs and top of her head were about the only parts to escape without burns. Luckily her face escaped severe burns.

The child suffered much pain last night but today when the physician visited her, her condition was some better although she is not considered out of danger. The grandfather is H. O. Williams of the Turley building barber shop.

Palmer and Thomas Atkins will spend the day at Camden Park, Huntington, tomorrow.

ARTHUR B. REEVE WRITES RADIO ROMANCE

Especially for The Portsmouth Daily Times
THE FICTION SCOOP OF THE DECADE

The Portsmouth Daily Times recognized the many radio fans among its readers would like to read a good radio romance. It sought such a story, but couldn't find one—for none had been written. But, through NEA Service, it engaged Arthur B. Reeve to write such a serial for original publication in this paper.

No need telling who Reeve is—millions throughout the world are Reeve fans; Reeve's celebrated character, Craig Kennedy, scientific detective, is universally famous in fiction, on stage and on screen.

Reeve refused to undertake the Portsmouth Daily Times' commission, "unless I can write a story that will add to my reputation." It was this spirit that has produced

Adventures Of The Twins

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

After awhile it boiled so hard a thick steam arose.

NE little Towlsie, called Wink, boiled a sweet dream in a Shoozulum Town on the Moon. First he put in some horse-hairs and a few out grains, then he put in a shiny buckle and bit of a new strap. These he moistened with water and stirred thoroughly.

Next he wrote an invitation and stirred it in, then he dropped in a bit of candle and a snip of birthday cake.

After awhile it boiled so hard that a thick steam arose. This Wink caught in a poppy-head bag and tied it up tight.

"Too, too, hee, hee!" he giggled, holding it up proudly to his next-door neighbor, called Blink. "Here's a fine dream for Tommy Brown. He's going to dream tonight he's going to get a pony for his birthday."

"I never make dreams that are too disappointing when they wake up," declared Blink. "Tommy will have a bad time when he finds it isn't true."

The Ketchel Five Hundred Club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Oscar Mantel of 827 Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brandel presided at one of the most elaborate and interesting parties of the season Saturday evening at their home on Second street, when they entertained the members of the Matron and Maid Club, their husbands and a few friends with a delicious three course chicken dinner of charming appointments. The rooms were beautifully decorated with roses and peonies, and the dinner was served at small tables attractively arranged in the large living room. After the dinner several hours were spent in playing progressive Five Hundred. During the evening delicious fruit punch was served in the dining-room. At the close of a delightful evening of cards, prizes were awarded to Mrs. John W. Snyder and Mr. Adolph Goodman for top scores. On this occasion Mr. and Mrs. Brandel named as their honor guests Mrs. Charles Juernsmeier of Lancaster, Ohio, Mr. Joseph Graf and son, Dr. W. J. Graf of Cincinnati. Others present included Mr. and Mrs. John W. Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moulder, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Distel, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Quesel, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sixteen Famous Stars in Wm. Christy Cabanne's Big Wonder Picture "Beyond the Rainbow." Coming to the Eastland Next Week, Monday, June 5th.

Wm. Christy Cabanne, brilliant young director who produces pictures for Robertson-Cole, steps forth and tells the world that he has assembled what he considers the greatest photoplay cast of the year.

Here are the members of the group which presents "Beyond the Rainbow" under the direction of Mr. Cabanne. See if you agree with him.

Harry Morey, featured in many big productions; Lillian (Billie) Dove, famous Hollywood beauty, who had the leading role in Mr. Cabanne's recent C-O success, "At the Stage Door"; Helen Ware, noted dramatic star, who last appeared on Broadway a few months ago in Belasco's big production, "The Wandering Jew"; Rose Coghlan, famous for years on stage and screen and reckoned one of the greatest actresses in the history of the American theatre; George Fawcett, long a favorite on the legitimate stage and the screen; Edmund Breese.

"Oh, ho, ho, ho!" laughed Wink. "But this is going to come true. Tommy will tell his dream to his daddy and you just see if it doesn't work."

"I'm going to mix up a dream for his daddy, too, and one for the man who sells ponies. The three of them ought to do some good."

"Now someone heard every word Wink and Blink said. It was Comet-Legs, the ugly fairy, who was jealous of the Man-in-the-Moon."

"Humph!" he grunted. "Every time somebody has a nice dream they give the credit to the Man-in-the-Moon and his fairies. I'll have to see about this dream for Tom Jones."

So he ran to the edge of the moon and straddled the shooting-star he used for horse and scooted off to Eonia Meena, the Magician, who cooked up bad dreams.

"See here!" he called. "I've a job for you! Cook me up a dream about a growly bear at once."

Dear Dolly—I am a married woman with three small children, all going to school, and my husband does not seem to be satisfied with me. When he is at home he is all the time saying he can't enjoy himself. I stay at home and do all I can to help him. I support myself and the children by keeping boarders. I keep my house clean and nice and my children spotless. Dolly, I get so disgusted with my husband sometimes that I do not know what to do. He goes with other women and I have found it out, and he doesn't deny it. I have always been true to him. I am only 26 years of age and I don't think my life should be spoiled and wrecked by a man like he has turned out to be. I hate to tear up my home and leave him as the children think so much of their daddy. Please tell me what to do.

DISHEARTENED MOTHER.

You will have to sacrifice your own happiness in order to save your children. If your husband is not meant to you or the children, that is something in his favor, and I think you can put up with his disagreeable disposition, for awhile at least. There are times in the lives of most people, especially married folks, when things are not as pleasant as they should be. Married life is like the road from here to Ironton.

It is nice and smooth for awhile, then comes a stretch of bumps that we think we will never get over—finally we hit the good road again and it is smooth sailing the rest of the journey. That is the way with you. If you have patience enough to get along with your husband until your children are older, you will be glad that you did not leave him. In the meantime you can find happiness in the company of your little ones. You can also be as pleasant as possible to your husband. If he is working and making enough to support his family, I would not keep boarders if I were you. Too much work will make you tired and irritable, and perhaps naggy and a little hard to get along with. Get out as much as possible and enjoy yourself.

Dear Miss Dolly—Please tell me what can be done with a person who opens another's mail, reads it and then burns it. What is the penalty?

INDIGNANT READER.

If such a case can be proved, it should be reported to the postal authorities. The punishment varies, and is settled by fine, or imprisonment, or both.

Dear Dolly—I am 48 years of age and going with a man of 40. He wants me to marry him, but my mother thinks he is too old for me. They agree with me that he is a nice man, and the only objections they have to him is his age. Do you think that would make any difference?

BROWN EYES.

I agree with your mother that the man is too old for you. In four or five years, when you are more mature, you may care for an entirely different sort of a person. Only too often a girl of 18 who becomes engaged makes a mistake even if her choice is a young man within two or three years of her own age.

Dear Dolly—I have a hunch that

BEGIN HERE TODAY

After five years of married life, LUCINDA DRUCE, New York society matron, concluded that wealth, youth, beauty, social position and sincere love, were not sufficient to hold the affection of her husband, BELAMY DRUCE, who was a selfish, egotistical, and even guilty of a series of escapades in which promiscuous flirtation and drunkenness had combined to humiliate his wife.

A broken promise to reform causes Lucinda to leave him. Bel follows her to Chicago and is prevented from forcibly restraining her from going to Reno by the intervention of an unidentified young man.

On the train, Lucinda meets her old friend,

FANNY LONTAINE, who with her husband is going to Hollywood, where

HARRY LONTAINE is thinking of forming a motion picture company. She learns that the young man who assisted her in escaping from Bel is also on the train and Lynn Summerlad, a prominent screen star. Lucinda has agreed to join the proposed motion picture company to take the star role.

In Los Angeles Mrs. Druce, now to be starred as Linda Lee in the Linda Lee Inc., motion picture Co., becomes so interested that Lontaine easily persuades her to furnish the capital for the producing of the pictures.

The weeks drag by and no work started on the proposed picture although the heavy expense is going on.

Lontaine and Summerlad assure Linda Lee that it costs money to make pictures. Summerlad makes love to Linda and she more than half reciprocates. Nelly Marquis appears on the scene and Summerlad advises Linda to have nothing to do with her. Summerlad has just left.

Linda Lee has been asked by Summerlad and his director to take a small part in one of Summerlad's pictures. She accepts gladly and after securing her costume she returns to her room. On passing the room of Nelly Marquis she discovers that lady lying on the floor and gives her assistance. When Nelly revives she orders Linda away again.

While taking her part in Summerlad's play, Linda discovers she is in love with him, and she also discovers among the uninvited guests, Bel who has followed her from the east. Fanny Lontaine thinks Bel's a priceless lamb.

Summerlad goes to Oregon to make a part for his picture. Linda discovers her director is not very well informed. She also discovers that her ex-husband has leased quarters and proposes to start in the movie business. He insists that she get her divorce at once and not disgrace his name.

The return of Summerlad was the signal for a celebration which was given at a restaurant by the Lontaines. At the celebration Linda discovers that Summerlad will drink that Belamy is there with Nelly Marquis but refuses to drink. She is somewhat upset by the celebration.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

"I'm sorry, I only wanted you to understand why I felt I had to warn you against Nelly. She's unfortunate, God knows, but she's dangerous, too. They all are, once the staff gets a hold on them, there's nothing they won't do, no lie they won't tell."

"And this... what goes on in this 'curly paradise'?"

"It isn't California, it isn't Hollywood, it's human nature."

LUCINDA dated from that Saturday the dawn of a fortnight when everything went wrong for her with such regularity that, in the end, the burden of its crosses grew too sore, the woman had been something more than merely mortal whose stores of fortitude and forbearance had not run low.

Naturally she blamed Belamy. But one day Lucinda devoted painful hours to totalling up her bank accounts, a duty which she had neglected religiously forgetting for a fortnight whose performance brought to light the fact that she had already given Harry Lontaine checks to his order for the sum of two hundred and ten thousand dollars, to be cashed by him and deposited to the credit of Linda Lee, Inc.

If she felt slightly dashed by this discovery, it was less because of the money involved—she had had from the first been prepared to pay more dearly for her whistle than Lontaine had declared it worth—than because the end was not yet. The first picture remained unfinished. It was now necessary to write Willis and ask him to find her money.

But her only course was to consult Lontaine in the faint hope that out of the sum entrusted to him there might be enough left in the company's treasury to see it through the present production. And this she hesitated to do because of an intuitive feeling that he would take this as directly challenging his competency. Lontaine was a sensitive soul.

However, he spared her the pain, for the next time they met he blantly advised Lucinda that the company could do with another twenty thousand as soon as she could find time to draw the check; and on learning that it would have to wait a few days, he seemed considerably disconcerted, or else finny miserly.

The day when Lucinda broke with Barry Lontaine began auspiciously enough with a night-letter from Harford Willis stating that money matters had been arranged in conformity with Lucinda's wishes, and adding that Willis hoped before long to give himself the pleasure of calling on her in person; he was leaving New York the day he telegraphed.

Not a little to her own wonder, Lucinda found herself pleasantly excited by the thought that she was to see this old friend again.

Busy with such reflections, and with the pleasing prospect of soon having a willing audience for her complaints, Lucinda made nothing of the fact that Lontaine showed the whites of his eyes and shied back like a skittish cob from the telegram which she submitted to his inspection, and was not much tranquilized by the check which, at the same time, she gave him for the replenishment of the company's coffers. And in her most amiable ten per she hurried from his office to her dressing-room, into the newest frock she had ever owned, who had owned so many, and then out to the stage.

The company was waiting, the cameras were waiting, Nolan with an air of noblest patience was waiting. All of which was quite needless, for there was other work in abundance that could have been attended to.

As Lucinda drew near, Nolan hoisted himself out of the basket-chair in which he had been lounging, with something more than a suggestion of limbs cramped by prolonged inactivity and bowed politely, too politely, "Sorry if I've kept you waiting, Mr. Nolan, but I had some business with Mr. Lontaine we couldn't put off."

"No matter at all, Miss Lee, I assure you—no matter at all! My time is yours, the company's time is yours, all the time there is—is yours, to use or waste, just as you think best."

repertoire of emotional artifice, he stepped out of the camera lines, consulting Lucinda with a glance and the stereotyped inquiry, "See what I want dear?"—she nodded without thinking—"You make it most real, I'll do my best"—and stepped into character and the cameras began to tick, and Nolan seized his baton of authority, the megaphone which he invariably used while directing, though he had as much need of it now as the cameras had of telescopic lenses.

"Now, dear," he blared through this instrument—"go to it and show us all you've got. Don't be afraid of letting yourself go. Remember this is your Big Scene, biggest you've got in this story, your one grand little chance to put it over that you're a sure-enough actress...."

Now you put your foot to the creek in the door and look horrified. You never dream of men could talk about women like that, you know. Show us horror, dear, make it strong, you can't make it too strong. Remember you're just realizing the man you love is such a rotten cad he could make a bet about your virtue. It just makes you feel sick all over—

"Great snakes. What's that for? What's the matter?"

For of a sudden Lucinda laughed outright, suddenly, the heartrending tremor of Nolan's voice as he decried the awful offense Richards had committed against Nelly in the play tickled irresistibly her sense of the absurd; and her laugh followed naturally, inevitably, uncontrollably.

"I'm sorry, Mr. Nolan," she gasped. "Forgive me, I—I didn't know I was going to laugh till—I—I—I struck me as so funny—"

Her voice rose and broke in another peal of hysterical merriment, her words became unintelligible while Nolan ground his teeth.

"What struck you as so funny?" he exploded. "Show me anything funny about this scene and I—I'll cut my megaphone. What's so damn funny?"

"Oh, I am sorry," Lucinda was doing her utmost to sober herself, but still her voice shook and her body rocked with recurrent spasms of idiotic mirth. "You see—when you said that—what you said about Richards being a rotten—all at once it struck me—I'm sure I don't know why—is funny, too awfully funny for words."

"Well, why?" Nolan insisted, all but dripping with rage. "Hell! Give a reason. Why's it funny?"

Pimples, blackheads and boils—fresh yeast rids you of them

It is well known that pimples and blackheads (acne) and boils are often caused by errors of diet.

Fleischmann's Yeast is now being recommended for these embarrassing and painful skin troubles because fresh yeast corrects the errors of diet which cause them.

The surgeon of one important New York hospital states: "I have used yeast extensively and found it invaluable in curing boils."

When 17 cases of pimples were treated with Fleischmann's Yeast at hospitals in New York and Philadelphia the results were remarkable. A typical case was a young man who had suffered from pimples for three years. He ate three cases of Fleischmann's Yeast daily. In five weeks the eruption had cleared completely.

If you are troubled with pimples or boils, begin at once to correct them by eating 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's fresh yeast daily before or between meals. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar diamond package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast.

Emphasized Need Of Christian Education

Dr. J. H. Hatfield of Akron, representative of The College of Wooster, delivered an address to the Men's Bible class of the Second Presbyterian church Sunday morning. The speaker emphasized the great need of Christian education such as Wooster provides, with its high scholarship and fine Christian standards.

He said in part: "Wooster is endeavoring to raise $1,000,000 by June 15 and has almost reached the goal. Every loyal Presbyterian is asked to pledge something to this great cause. An intensive campaign will be put on in this city as elsewhere to provide this adequate endowment for a great college."

"Wooster has had fifty years of splendid history. It has about fifty members in the faculty and 830 students. It has 2000 alumni and more than one-half of them are in religious or educational professions. Ninety-six percent of the Wooster students are professing Christians. Wooster is a great asset for the home, the church and civilization," the speaker declared.

On Wings of Wireless

Radio, Reeve and Romance

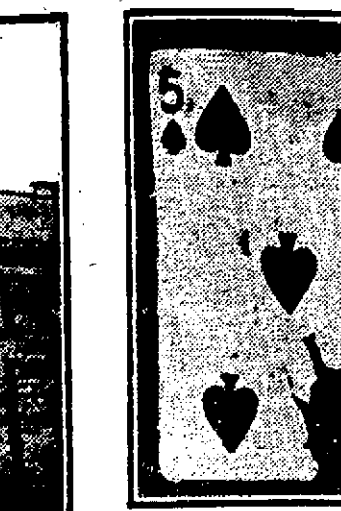

What a combination for fiction fans! Radio forms the basis of the plot—radio, marvelous, mysterious, magnetic! Arthur B. Reeve writes the story: Reeve, creator of Craig Kennedy, scientific detective, hero of fiction, stage and screen, known to millions! Romance—never was a more notable novel penned, replete in thrills, suspense, surprises!

"On Wings of Wireless" is the startling, stupendous story of a band of master criminals who turn man's greatest invention, the radio, to their purposes. Reeve has written this story on special commission through NEA Service especially for

LAWRENCE COOPER, WOUNDED BY RELATIVE, DIES; GUN USER TAKEN TO LOCAL HOSPITAL

Lawrence Cooper, aged 27 well known farmer of Upper Twin Creek, who was shot in the abdomen Sunday, May 21, by Robert Cooper, Jr., aged 19, of Lower Twin Creek, succumbed to his wound in Schirrmann hospital early Monday morning. The bullet from a 25 automatic revolver perforated his intestines and he was in a serious condition when brought to the hospital. He was without the services of a physician for several hours after being wounded. He had been unconscious since last Friday.

Robert Cooper, who was shot in the right leg after he had wounded Lawrence Cooper at his home on Twin Creek, was reported in a serious condition today at Hempstead hospital. The bullet, which lodged near his knee has not been located. The youthful gun user has developed fever and his condition is serious. No further effort is being made to probe for the bullet at present. After Cooper shot Lawrence Cooper he was shot in the leg while running away from the scene of the shooting. He says he does not know who shot him.

Prosecuting Attorney George Sheppard stated Monday that a murder charge would be placed against the gun user and that the approaching grand jury would take up his case. The Coopers are distant relatives it was stated Monday.

A dance was in progress at Lawrence Cooper's home last Saturday night when Robert Cooper showed up. When he was asked to leave the place and refused, he was shoved out the door by Lawrence Cooper. This enraged the gun user and after borrowing a revolver he returned and shot Lawrence Cooper in the abdomen. Cooper was found the next day at his home and arrested. He had been drinking before the shooting officials were told. Cooper after being brought to the hospital improved for a day or two and it was thought he had a fighting chance. When complications developed his condition became alarming. Cooper is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sarah Cooper and two children, Lemmie and Marie. He also leaves his mother, Mrs. Clay Cooper and following sisters and brothers: Kenny, Edward, Fred and Jonas, Mrs. Maggie Simpson of Columbus, Mrs. Nettie Grimes of this city, Mrs. Leona Blevins, Mrs. Lillian McGraw and Mrs. Sallie Holsinger of the West Side.

Cooper had always borne a splendid reputation and leaves many friends to mourn his death.

Automobile Hit By N. & W. Engine

A Buick touring car, owned and driven by Louis Miller, of 1706 Highland avenue, was badly damaged Sunday morning at 11:32, when the machine and N. & W. passenger train No. 26 from Cincinnati collided at the Chillicothe street crossing, just north of Fourteenth street. Mr. Miller failed to see or hear the train approaching the crossing until it was too late to stop. He swerved his machine to one side in an attempt to avoid the train but the machine did not get in the clear and struck the pilot beam of the engine.

The bumper and right front wheel was torn off and the hood and radiator damaged.

In the machine with Mr. Miller were his wife and her sister, Miss Margaret Pfeiffer, of Eleventh street. The occupants of the car escaped with a good fright. The engineer in charge of the engine was C. C. Bollwell, of this city, while W. A. McArthur was the conductor in charge of the train which was making about six miles an hour at the time of the accident. The train was slowing down for the stop in "the cut" northwest of Findlay street.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyson and little son Jack, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Baker and two children, Ben and Willie, all of Chillicothe, spent Sunday with Mrs. Hyson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bauer of Sixth street. Mrs. Hyson and son Jack will remain with her parents for a week's visit.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Franelle Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Wheeler, Minford, and Mr. Charles Rolf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rolf, Wheelersburg. The ceremony was an event of May 11, in Nashville, Tenn. Mr. and Mrs. Rolf have a prettily furnished home in Wheelersburg, where they are now at home to their friends.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Lanesville M. E. church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Andre on the West Side. Mrs. G. W. Weaver and Mrs. J. H. Appel will be the assistant hostesses.

Mrs. James S. Moore of 425 Clinton street, who submitted to an operation in Hempstead Thursday, is recovering nicely.

George Goodman of Second street, will spend Decoration Day with his niece, Miss Anna Goodman, who is a student at Ohio University, Athens.

Miss Eleanor Iteitz of Cincinnati is spending a few days with home folks on Second street.

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. James Brock of Pond Creek was the scene of a merry gathering Sunday when a number of their relatives and friends assembled to help them celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary.

The Brock home was handsomely decorated in garden and field flowers, roses and daisies being used to advantage in the rooms where the guests were received. At twelve o'clock a sumptuous three course dinner was served. The table had for its central adornment a large white cake topped with five gleaming candles, and places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Daniels and children, Virginia and Dona, Mrs. Elsie Allen and children, Cecil, Bernard, Mildred and Richard, Mrs. Harry Baum and sons, Gordon, Lowell, Jack and David, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Haffner and children, Albert and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Schaefer and children, Dora, Jane, James and Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Daniels and children, Thelma, Stewart and Dorothy, Mrs. Geraldine Stealy and children, Alice, Alma, Betty and Jack, Mrs. Alfred Buckley, Mrs. Edie Deitz and son John and Mr. Wilbur Howell, all of this city, and Mrs. Thomas Brock of Seltville.

The guests enjoyed the remainder of the afternoon in games, music and social chat. Music for the occasion was furnished by Mrs. Geraldine Stealy.

Mr. and Mrs. Brock were the recipients of many beautiful and useful presents.

Mr. Arthur Peake, who had his tonsils removed at Hempstead hospital Saturday, was removed to the home of Mrs. Peake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Tracy, of 812 Waller street, yesterday afternoon. He is getting along as well as could be expected.

The Senior Class of Holy Redeemer High School will present as their class play, "Abraham," Thursday evening, June 1, at eight o'clock, in the High School Auditorium. Tickets may be procured from any of the pupils of the school and reservations will be made at Brantley's Book Store Wednesday morning, May 31, from eight till ten o'clock.

Mrs. Florence Deen and sister, Mrs. Edna Wrightson and baby of Philadelphia, Pa., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Bronly of Mahert Road, Mrs. Bronly, who has been seriously ill, is improving.

FIRESTONE INCREASE FACTORY WAGES

Defies Age By Using Howard's Buttermilk Cream For Complexion

Every Woman Who Values Her Complexion and Good Looks Should Read This.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"Some time ago," writes S. Janie Doan, "you sent me a supply of your wonderful Cream and Soap. All I can say is that they are both magical. They take 10 years off a woman's looks. It is positively marvelous how they transform one's complexion. I have used the highest priced and most highly recommended Creams and Soaps on the market but have never found anything so good as Buttermilk Cream and Soap. For the enclosed check will you please send me another supply. I could have procured this from my druggist but I did so want to tell you how much I appreciated and enjoyed their use."

The first application of Howard's Buttermilk Cream will astonish you. It creates beauty almost like magic, but the most wonderful thing about it is the fact that while it turns the dull and most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough arms and hands snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the slightest shininess or greasiness of the skin.

It is absolutely harmless and will neither produce nor stimulate the growth of hair. Within 24 hours Howard's Buttermilk Cream is guaranteed to work a marvelous transformation. If you cannot obtain locally send 10 cents (either by express or registered mail) for a trial package of both Cream and Soap. Howard Bros. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement.

STEEL OFFICIALS REACH AGREEMENT

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—An agreement to merge has been reached by officials of the Electric Alloy Steel Company, of Youngstown, and the Atlas Crucible Steel Company, of Dunkirk, N. Y., and will be submitted to the boards of directors of the companies this week. It was announced here today by L. J. Campbell, president of the Electric Alloy, and A. H. Hunter, president of the Atlas Company.

Mr. Hunter, who is a resident of Buffalo, will be president of the new company, and Mr. Campbell, who is the son of James Campbell, president of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, will be chairman of the board.

The new corporation will have the second largest production of high speed steel in the country. Each concern has about $2,000,000 of common stock and the two together have about $5,000,000 preferred stock. The Electric Alloy Company has a plant at Charleroi, Pa., and a site near Niles, Ohio, on which a plant is to be built soon. The Atlas Crucible Steel Company has plants at Dunkirk, N. Y., and at Welland, Ontario.

In 1921 the world's production of steel dropped back to the level of production in 1900.

The Portsmouth American Building and Loan Association Company has one asset, none the less real because it is not reflected in a published financial statement—It is the loyalty and friendship of a host of interested shareholders and borrowers who have steadfastly and for many years given material proof of their friendship.

Viewed from a standpoint of the ideals and traditions of this organization, none of our tangible assets could be more highly prized, or of greater commercial value in our plans for the development of home ownership in this community.

Without the past confidence and co-operation of our shareholders and borrowers, we could not have obtained the high plane of service and value to the economic structure of the community, which we are today privileged to occupy.

With the continuance of such trust and confidence—which it shall be our most cherished duty to merit fully—there can be no limit to what we may accomplish for the good of the housing and employment problems now existing here.

This is a company striving to reach the highest ideals in the Building and Loan Association movement, and offering at the same time absolute security to its shareholders. We are endeavoring to give the service that we find our patrons requiring, and we shall continue to serve their interests during the coming years with an even greater zeal than ever before.

Memorial Day

Each Memorial Day through the past years we have watched the column of gallant men pass by—proudly bearing their battle flags, rifles swinging, drums rolling—through the streets of the old town. A quiver has run up our backs, we've stepped a little brisker, our chests out a bit further even though our eyes dimmed for a minute after they had passed. These men marching reverently, proudly to do honor to their fallen comrades, have reminded us that we had many things to be proud and grateful for—that we were citizens of the United States of America and that these men had handed down to us a free nation.

To us this glorious day is a direct inheritance, not only as Americans, but as veterans of a war fought victoriously for a righteous cause, and a better world.

Each man and woman whom we honor on this day won the war for us—their part may have been small and unassuming but to all of them equal honor is due. They gave their all. And as we line up with our post, in our old regiments—the proudest regiment any American can ever wear, the uniform of our country—think of those buddies who did not come back, of their mothers and fathers who are watching you, grateful for this little tribute to their boys—our comrades who gave their lives, that we might enjoy the citizenship of this nation.

"Dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion."

SHOOTS HIS BROTHER IN AFFRAY AT DANCE

The Woodcut vicinity in the wilds of Vernon township, was the scene of a shooting affray late Saturday night, when Herb Mosley, 22 years old, was shot and seriously wounded by his brother, McKinley Mosley, 26 years old.

The shooting occurred during a fight which arose while a dance and drinking bout were in progress at an empty shanty in the neighborhood, officers alleged.

From information gathered by Sheriff Hickey, Deputy Frank Bennett and Wm. H. Hickey, who visited the scene of the trouble early Sunday after learning of the row, the fight started when McKinley Mosley, who was the fiddler, and was furnishing the music, took Bill Brown to task for interfering with the dancers and while the two men struggled outside the shanty, Herb Mosley, his chained drew his gun and fired, the bullet striking his brother in the breast just below the heart.

The officers scoured the eastern part of the county in an effort to apprehend the gun user, but he had made good his escape, and probably fled to Kentucky, his former home.

The victim of the shooting was resting easy when the officers returned to Portsmouth early this morning, and it is believed he will recover. Dr. Gallagher, of Ironton, was called to attend the wounded man, but the physician did not arrive until late yesterday afternoon, nearly 24 hours after the wound was inflicted. The doctor did not probe for the bullet, as the wound was too near the heart, and the injured man will probably be removed to a hospital for an operation.

The officers while on that section, took into custody, a quartet,

Perk Jordan, John Adkins, George Nelson and Mrs. Louis Moore on liquor charges and brought them to the county jail. All pleaded guilty when arraigned Monday and Judge George Morgan fined Adkins $200 and costs; Jordan drew $100, and Nelson and Mrs. Moore were passed fines of $100, but half was suspended in their cases.

OBITUARY

Leonard Armesey

Today in Waverly the funeral of Leonard Armesey one of Pike county's best known farmers who died Friday night, was held with burial in the Waverly cemetery. Mr. Armesey who was 82 years of age, had always been a prominent farmer in the southern part of Pike county. He had been manager of the Sargent farm for a number of years and died Friday night at 11:20 o'clock at his home just east of Sargent Station on the N. & W.

Two children, Mrs. John Daniels of Waverly and Chas. Armesey, manager of the Rittenhour farm at Chillicothe, survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lauterman, Jacob Gehres and Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Heath of this city, left this morning for Waverly to attend the funeral. Mrs. Heath is a granddaughter of the deceased.

SOCIETY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized in Our Lady of Lourdes Church at Otway this morning, when Miss Blanche Garlin became the bride of Mr. Lawrence Montavon. The impressive ceremony was read at seven o'clock by Rev. H. J. Tasker, pastor of the church, in the presence of the immediate families and a few friends of the happy couple.

The attendants were Miss Magdalena Montavon and Mr. George Montavon, sister and brother of the groom. The bride looked charming in a handsome afternoon gown of blue crepe de chine, with harmonizing accessories. Her high collar was a shower of bride's roses.

The maid was attired in a beautiful brown crepe gown with hat and footgear to match. She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.

The happy couple left later in the day for a short honeymoon trip to Columbus and Dayton, and upon their return they will make their home with the groom's mother.

The Elks will hold an informal dance at Millbrook park pavilion Friday evening. No invitations will be issued other than through the press, and all Elks, their wives and sweethearts are cordially invited to attend.

Probing New Murder Plot

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Search was made today for a mysterious woman said to have offered $500 to a youth in a New York restaurant to commit a murder in the New Rochelle home of Walter S. Ward, who admits he killed Clarence Peters because of blackmail, but keeps the nature of the blackmail secret.

A check-up by the police bears out the story told them by a waiter in a Broadway restaurant that a young woman, dressed in black, had taken him to New Rochelle, pointed out the Ward house and promised him $500 if he would enter the house with her and shoot the person she pointed out to him.

He refused on the pretext that he was not prepared and promised to meet her Saturday night. He went with his story to the police, who watched for the woman, but she failed to appear. Other employees in the place where the waiter works, corroborated his story that the woman had eaten in the place several times and had made an appointment with him.

Search is also being made for a man named Ross, who is regarded as the brains of the blackmail gang, of which Ward says Peters was a member and which Ward says he paid $50,000 before refusing a demand for $75,000 more. Counsel for the Peters family has promised to produce Ross, but as yet has not done so.

Army Officer Thrown Off A Horse

MILWAUKEE, WIS., May 29.—(By the Associated Press)—Brigadier General William Mitchell, of the government aviation service, fell from a horse late yesterday and injured. It became known today. The horse, which General Mitchell was riding, slipped and fell when he attempted to jump over a barbed wire fence, throwing the rider with considerable force to the ground. It was stated by his physician that no bones were broken.

In its order the board expressed the belief that after the reductions are made common labor on the railroads will still be receiving higher wages than similar labor in most other industries.

THE MOVIES

Starting tonight at the Eastland theatre, Wm. Fox will offer his latest giant special production "Perjury" with America's favorite actor, William Fox, without a doubt Fox's greatest picture. Special musical selections and other features.

Program
A—Harold Lloyd in "On the Jump."
B—The Fox weekly news events.
C—Wm. Fox presents Wm. Fox in "Perjury."

"Perjury" a William Fox special production presenting William Fox in a role which is said to make supreme demands upon his dramatic genius, will begin a run at the Eastland theatre tonight.

The production enjoyed a special run in a Broadway New York theatre where it created a sensation. Melodramatic reviewers declared it one of the most intense human interest dramas ever seen on the screen.

Harry M. Warner directed the big picture, and the cast includes Sally Crane, Wallace Erskine, John Webb Dillon, Frank Shannon, Frank Joyner, Grace La Vell, Gilbert Roemer and Alice Mann.

The story of "Perjury" requires the famous screen star to display varying emotions of tremendous intensity. The hero, Robert Moore, appears first as a strong and successful man of 45 years, manager of a large factory, and a happy husband and father, genial and cheerful. From this he is transformed by suspicion and jealousy into a person of unending fear, and then comes despair, followed by submission as prison doors close upon him for twenty years.

Through the long term in prison Robert develops a kindness and saintliness of character which endear him to the warden and guards. There is pathos in the situation, but the tragic element has passed. The scene in which the prematurely aged convict leaves the prison, and those immediately following, are said to be the most touching portrayals ever given by William Fox.

Wages of maintenance of way employees, now ranging from 28 to 40 cents an hour, will after July 1, range from 23 to 35 cents. Common labor suffered the biggest cut. This class numbers about 187,000 employees, who face a reduction of five cents an hour along with 91,000 men who work at shops, round houses and yards.

Section, track and maintenance foremen will take a three cent reduction, while mechanics not under the shop crafts agreement were cut four cents and mechanics helpers one cent.

In its order the board expressed the belief that after the reductions are made common labor on the railroads will still be receiving higher wages than similar labor in most other industries.

Proper Use of Flag Urged For May 30 by Legion Post

Proper display of the Stars and Stripes was urged Monday by Post Commander Harold Clayton of James Dickey Post No. 23, American Legion, in requesting manufacturers, merchants, business men and citizens of Portsmouth to decorate their homes and office buildings on Decoration Day, Tuesday, May 30.

"The flag is the emblem of our country and, as such, it has never been humiliated," Commander Clayton declared. "It stands for the highest ideals of the peoples but it is only when the World War that people have really begun to look upon it with the proper reverence."

"Unlike European peoples, Americans are more or less careless in the matter of formality and it behooves us, as we prepare for the Memorial Day service here Tuesday, to think a bit on the proper respects of the flag," he continued as he outlined the following prescribed flag regulations.

"The flag should not be hoisted before sunrise nor allowed to remain up after sunset.

"When the flag is flown at half staff as a sign of mourning, it should be hoisted to full staff at the conclusion of the funeral.

"In placing the flag at half staff, it should first be hoisted to the top of the staff the distance of the width of the flag, and preliminary to lowering from half staff, it should first be raised to the top."

"No flag should ever be flown from the same staff as the U. S. Flag except in the Navy; then only during Divine Service, when the Church Pennant may be displayed above the National Flag—God above Country."

"When, in Parade, the National Flag is carried with any other flag, it should have the place of honor, at the right. If a number of flags are carried, the National Flag should either precede the others or be carried in the center, above the others, on a higher staff."

"When the National Flag is used as a banner the union should be at the right (as you face the flag). When used as an altar covering, the union is at the right (as you face the altar), and nothing should ever be placed upon the flag except the Holy Bible.

"The flag should never be flown reversed except in case of distress at sea."

There are seventeen national holidays in the United States when the American flag should be displayed. On two of these holidays, Memorial Day and Armistice Day, May 30 and November 11, the flag should be displayed at half staff from sunrise until noon and at full staff from noon until sunset.

Commander Clayton has issued a request that hotels, business houses and factories and homes throughout the city properly display the flag Tuesday in observing the one holiday on which people all over the nation bow their heads in loving memory of the men who have sacrificed their lives in the service of the United States.

Chicago, May 29.—With deliveries on May contracts less heavy than has been the rule of late, the wheat market took a decided upward swing during the early transactions. Talk of Germany getting a billion dollar loan tended also to encourage sentiment in favor of the bulls. Trade, however, lacked volume and the market was easily influenced. Deliveries on May contracts totaled 585,000 bushels and there were fresh arrivals here of 540 car loads of wheat. The opening, which ranged from 1/2 off to 1/2 advance, with May 1 1/2 to 1 1/2, and July 1 1/2 to 1 1/2, was followed by a rise all around, which carried May to 1 1/2 and July to 1 1/2.

The close was weak, 3/4 to 1 1/2 net lower with July 6 1/2 to 6 1/2. Corn and oats strengthened with wheat. After opening, unchanged to 3/4 lower, July 6 1/2 to 6 1/2, the corn market scored quite general gains. Oats started 3/4 lower to 3/4 advance, July 5 1/2 to 5 1/2, and afterwards ascended a little all around. Provisions reflected the grain advance, notwithstanding lower quotations on hogs.

The market closed heavy, 5 1/2 c to 6 c net lower, with May 1 1/2 to 1 1/2 and July 1 1/2 to 1 1/2.

PARADE, DECORATING GRAVES OF HEROES WILL FEATURE MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES

Details for the big Decoration Day parade and exercises to be held at Greenlawn cemetery tomorrow were completed this afternoon at a meeting of the Grand Marshal and his aides. They decided on the places of formation for the various units.

The parade is to move at nine o'clock sharp tomorrow morning from Gallia and Waller streets.

D. Gardner of the American Legion is to be Grand Marshal of the parade this year. Harry Kahmar of Bailey Post G. A. R. is honorary Grand Marshal and Harry Mathiot is first assistant Grand Marshal. The aides will be Don Jewell, Harry Davidson and Walter F. Kogel.

The persons who are intending to take part in the parade are urged to gather at Gallia and Waller streets at 8:30 o'clock. This will give the Grand Marshal and aides time to get the units into the proper formation. Organizations will form on the north side of Gallia. Harvard, Union, Waller, north of Gallia and south of Gallia.

The members of the Combat Train and Battery B in full uniform are expected to participate this year. These organizations are the new National Guard units in Portsmouth and should make a fine appearance tomorrow in complete uniforms. Other organizations expected to take part are the G. A. R., Woman's Relief Corps, Spanish War Veterans, S. W. V. Auxiliary American Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, Modern Woodmen of America, J. O. U. A. M., Woodmen of the World, Boy Scouts, Red Cross and Girl Scouts.

Practical organizations are urged to have their degree teams in uniform in line.

The parade was without a hand last year and the same will be true this year. The only music will be that which is furnished by the drum corps and buglers. A complete squad of buglers is expected to be in the parade.

The line of march is to be west on Gallia to Chillicothe, north on Chillicothe to Ninth, through the park and past the soldiers' monument and back to Ninth street at Gay, east on Ninth to Officers and north on Officers to Greenlawn cemetery.

At Greenlawn cemetery the graves will be decorated by the Boy Scouts and ex-service men and Sons of Veterans.

The Memorial Day address will be delivered by Attorney Clinton M. Searl in Soldiers Circle where the exercises in Greenlawn will take place. The firing of the salute will also be in Soldiers Circle. This year the Spanish War Veterans and American Legion will both have rifle squads.

Dave Scott and a committee worked Sunday afternoon marking the graves of deceased veterans of the past wars. All persons having flowers are urged to save them for the graves of soldiers. Flowers should be taken to the library this evening or tomorrow morning early. Women will be there to make bouquets.

Persons having machines for veterans should be in front of the library a half hour before the parade moves.

The places of formation were designated as follows this afternoon: G. A. R. in front of Library in machines. Sons of Veterans on Waller north of Gallia. World War Veterans Harvard Street, Battery B and Combat Train, Union street, Woodmen and other fraternal organizations on Grimes Avenue. Women's Relief Corps and other auxiliaries in machines on Grimes Avenue, all children not affiliated with other organizations on Waller north of Gallia. Drum Corps on northwest corner of Waller and Gallia. Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Red Cross on Glover street.

The same rule will be followed this year as last in the taking of the machines out of line of march. As the machines reach Twelfth on Officers they will turn east on Twelfth north on Lincoln and west on Grant the first machine to park on the north side of Grant at Officers. They will discharge their passengers there.

Chief of Police Joseph Distel this afternoon announced no parking will be allowed along the line of march, thus keeping the streets free for the parade.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

NEW YORK, May 29.—The cut in railroad wages announced overnight by the United States railroad labor board and firmness of foreign exchange evidently were regarded as bullish arguments by traders, judging from the strength of the general list at the opening of today's session. Several of the junior rails made one point gains, while investments registered large fractional advances. Independent stocks again were sustained by revival of merger reports. Creditable rising one point and Republic two two points. Foreign oils continued to strengthen, Mexican Petroleum gaining two points. Among specialties Famous Players, American Tobacco and United Drug were substantial higher and shorts were driven to cover in Sunnata Tobacco, that stock showing an early gain of 3 1/2 points.

MAN TAKEN TO INFIRMARY HAD $4,800 ON PERSON; DIES IN IROTON HOSPITAL

The Irononian Sunday morning mail.

After an illness of several days duration Charles W. Thompson, age 43, of near Waterloo, died at the Marlborough Hospital. Two brothers at Waterloo and another who lives back of Coal Grove, survive.

Mr. Thompson was picked up unconscious on South Third street several days ago by Charles Freeman, and there being no marks of identification upon him, he was taken to the county infirmary. His condition continued to grow worse and he was taken to the Marlborough Hospital. When being prepared for a bath at the infirmary $4,800 was found in a money belt around his body. He regained consciousness and was able to give a few particulars about himself but these in themselves were meagre. It seems he worked at Black Fork for the Black Fork Tile Company up until ten days ago when a fire broke out in the shack in which he lived burning a grain containing $800 in war savings stamps and other government securities. Ever since the fire he said he cannot clearly recall what happened and he could not clearly account for his being in Iron-ton.

HEALTH COMMISSIONERS ISSUE WARNING

Dangers of summer camps and pleasure resorts due to impure water supplies and defective sewerage systems or lack of sewerage systems are emphasized by Health Commissioners DeCraw and Taffe.

It is pointed out that residence in these camps and resorts even for brief periods, frequently result in impairment of health, and that the danger of health, mainly on account of the carelessness of those visiting these places. Emphasis is also laid on the danger of swimming or bathing in polluted water, which in the last few years has been responsible for a large amount of disease.

Precautions are urged against all these hazards to health, and prospective campers are urged to fortify themselves with accurate knowledge of conditions at the places where they expect to spend their vacations. We further recommend that all shall be immunized against typhoid by the use of typhoid serum, which the state will furnish to all physicians applying for same.

HOUSEKEEPER WAS IN MISERY

Twice Hard for Her to Stop Work, But This Texas Lady Says She Had to Go to Bed—Helped by Cardui.

SALADO, TEXAS.—"I suffered a great deal with womanly troubles," says Miss Ira Lillian Hart, of Route 1, this place. "I would, for a day or two, feel drowsy, stupid and listless; didn't feel like doing my work."

"I would suffer pains in my sides and back, and have very severe headaches."

"I am the housekeeper and it was very hard for me to stop, but I would get in such misery I would have to go to bed."

"I heard of Cardui and that it was good for this suffering."

"The very first bottle I took seemed to help me. I did not suffer near so much, so I sent for the second."

"It did so much good for me, I can't say enough for Cardui, for it certainly was a friend in need. I have recommended it to others, and gladly do so."

"I do not dread . . . time as I used to."

Women who feel the need of something to help relieve, or prevent, such troubles as Miss Hart mentions above should profit by the experience of thousands of other women, who have taken Cardui, with results which cause them to praise this purely vegetable, mild, harmless, tonic for women.

Russell Wins From All Stars

Some Record

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 29.—(By Associated Press.)—The Indianapolis American Association baseball team was well on its way toward a world record for holding opponents' runless yesterday, according to William Smith Jr., the club's vice president. The lone run scored by Columbus in the eighth inning of the second game of a double header at Columbus was the first in forty-three consecutive innings.

The record, according to Mr. Smith, was established by the Pittsburgh Nationals, who started June 2, 1913 and blanked their opponents for fifty-two consecutive innings.

Before 500 fans the strong Russell team returned to Milbrook Sunday and again trounced the All Stars, 5 to 2, ten innings. Russell apparently had the game on ice until the Stars tied the score in the sixth. In the tenth Russell got three on and the game was over when Elam tripped to deep center. The score:

RUSSELL	AB	R	H	O	A	E
Chlan	5	1	1	4	0	1
Sutton	5	0	0	3	4	0
Farrell	5	1	1	2	0	0
Elam	5	1	1	5	2	0
Vidit	5	0	2	1	4	0
Messersmith	5	0	1	2	1	0
Huhart	4	0	2	3	0	0
Welch	3	1	0	1	2	0
Baker	3	1	2	1	1	0
Totals	40	5	9	30	16	3

CARDINALS TRIM LUCASVILLE TEAM

The Cardinals of this city journeyed to Lucasville Sunday and defeated the Lucasville nine, 9 to 6. Bending was on the mound for Lucasville and twiced a winning brand of ball but outfielders dropped no less than five easy fly balls that allowed runners to score.

Bauer pitched for the Cardinals and was hit hard but the village lads could not make them timely when men were on the bases. Sellers caught for Lucasville and Reiser for the Cardinals. Next Sunday Lucasville plays South Webster at Lucasville.

WIN TWO GAMES

The North Moreland Stars showed their class Sunday when they beat Harrisonville 20 to 2 and then trounced the West Special 14 to 0. In the first game Sizemore struck out 12 Harrisonville batters.

Team Crippled

The All Stars presented a crippled team yesterday and had no chance to beat the fast traveling Russell outfit. Several players were out of their positions and good smart baseball was out of the question.

After Game

The Fullerton Giants have an open date tomorrow (Decoration Day) and would like to hook up with some good local team on the holiday. For further information call Warner's lively barn in Fullerton.

Gets Two More

ST. LOUIS, May 29.—Slamming out two more home runs, Roger Hornsby, St. Louis National second baseman, brought his total home runs this season up to 12, one more than his nearest rival, Ken Williams, of the St. Louis Americans, who has 12.

Coogan Vs Welling

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., May 29.—Mel Coogan, of Brooklyn, and Joe Welling, of Chicago, lightweights, will meet in a ten-round boxing bout here tonight. They are said to have met once before, the contest being a draw.

RUTH MUST KEEP SPIRIT UP, GIRTH DOWN

BY WALTER CAMP
(Copyright, 1922)
(Special Correspondent of the Times)

NEW YORK, May 29.—Babe Ruth with a wonderful opportunity of enhancing his fame as a home-run hitter has fallen down at times when the bases were filled. Those who have studied the technique of baseball maintain that the pitchers are now feeding Ruth two balls and that his waist line is such as to render him unable to make his mighty sweep at a knee-high delivery.

Well, there is a sermon to be preached on waistlines. A waistline is a liability, not an asset. This applies not only to ball players, but to boxers, to any athlete, and, indeed, to any man who wishes to keep fit.

Overweight is regarded as hazardous by the insurance companies and there is, as well, the big risk that Ruth is liable to find it hazardous financially. An English surgeon once said: "The picture of the human animal is something like this: The important internal organs of the body may be supposed to be contained in a semi-elastic bag two or three inches bigger around the top than around the bottom. These proportions are permitted to alter so that the upper part becomes two or three inches smaller and the lower circumference several inches larger. What must happen to the contents?"

Although not at all scientific this outgiving is certainly graphic. It is a well-known fact that quite speedily after a man loses sight of his feet he fails to find much further use for them. It is in a vicious circle he travels after that. The less he exercises the fatter he grows and the fatter he grows the more it exhausts him to exercise. Therefore, he exercises little.

One may be naturally of rounded contour and it would be foolish for a man of the sort to turn himself into a semi-skeleton. Another man may be nervous and wiry. This man might to his advantage put on some pounds in weight as sort of a buffer, but grossness and girth grow upon the slothful and indolent and it has been found since the time immemorial that exercise and efficiency go hand in hand as do fitness and health. Youth is young. That is a great asset in any attempt to come back. For youth can stand training, has the resilience, and, in the case of this particular hero he is naturally and specifically equipped for the special job in which he is a shining light.

Whether so many thousands will turn out to see Babe Ruth in the future depends upon how well he keeps his spirits up and his girth down.

Greb-Carpentier Match Would Suit Fans

(BY SPARROW McCANN)
(Copyright, 1922, Special Correspondent of the Times)

NEW YORK, May 27.—Chances of Harry Greb against Georges Carpentier are the chief topic of conversation, argument and assertion among pugilistic fans this week. There are all sorts of opinions about this bout, but no one has yet been found who won't admit that a battle between the two would make the star battle of the decade.

Both men employ a similar style of fighting—that is constant energy with the air full of gloves. But whereas Carpentier does not match Greb in the matter of bounding energy and unceasing action, he is conceded to have a right hand wallop of deadly efficiency such as the Pittsburgh wild cat does not possess.

Could Carpentier lay his smashing disintegrating right upon Greb's chin and thus fatten him for the count as he has so many other fighters? Some say yes, others say no. One of the keenest judges of fighting in this country is Philadelphia Jack O'Brien, a great fighter himself at one time, and now engaged in the valuable occupation of teaching New York business men how to be healthful and efficient through exercise.

Jack, who has watched Greb carefully says that he will beat Carpentier. He says that Harry will fill the Frenchman as full of gloves as he has the rest and that Carpentier will never get the opportunity to whip over his right with knockout force.

"If he should," says O'Brien, "Greb would probably be knocked out, although he is a very hard boy to hurt. But I don't see how Carpentier could ever bring his right in the way Greb works. His method is all his own. Everything he does, wild as it looks, has been studied out, and such blows as that dipping right of his, have been invented by him for his own special brand of attack.

"It would be a great fight, greater than any that could be arranged and would go, I think to a decision. Don't think Greb can't hit. He can. If he sets himself he can wallop as hard as the best of them. But he prefers to keep on the move every minute and have his blows sting and cut rather than crush."

O'Brien added that Greb can hit five blows with his left in one second and as to that Gene Tunney will probably give contradictory testimony. That Greb is fearless is shown not only by his constant bounding into the attack, but his willingness to stand toe to toe with the big fellow and exchange wallops. One thing, however, he would have to watch against Carpentier would be throwing himself off balance as he occasionally does when leaping into the attack. It is rational to believe that Carpentier would hardly be so foolhardy as Tunney was last Tuesday night when he let two chances go by to put his right on Harry after he had slipped, half to his knees.

Kickard is right in his theory that the battle would be a great drawing card. Carpentier's appearance alone would insure that. The arena on Boyle's Thirty Acres would probably be filled and the battle would be worth all the money it costs.

GILBERT TEAM TO PLAY WELLSTON

The Greennip nine cancelled their Sunday game with the Gilbert gro-cery nine late Saturday night and that left the local team without a game for Sunday.

The Gilbert nine is counting on a big game tomorrow at Wellston. Manager Baker has received a letter from the manager of the Wellston club telling some of the things on the day's program the ball game to be the climax. A parade and band concert will end at the ball park where several addresses will be made before the diamond contest starts. The local team will leave for Wellston on the six o'clock B. and O. train tomorrow morning. Greene and Crawford will form the battery for the Gilbert nine.

Trinity Athletic Club Ready To Start Its Second Season

Trinity Athletic club will begin its second season in a few days on a ground that has been practically rebuilt since last year, and with considerable increase in equipment.

Their tennis courts, two in number have been entirely rebuilt, standardized as to size, entirely enclosed. The horseshoe courts, (six), which are complete and now in use, are enclosed and electrically lighted. They have one large slide, "giant stride," several swings, volley ball court, croquet ground and a special department for the little kiddies with sand pile, doll house, small teters and slide—all fenced in. They hope to provide a play instructor for the children. All those interested in this activity are requested to be present at a meeting to be held at Trinity church this (Monday) evening at 7 o'clock. Much business of importance will come up for consideration.

Plan To Try Pastor On Charge of Murder

CHARLES TOWN, W. VA., May 29.—(By the Associated Press.)—The prosecution today upset a tentative agreement to postpone the Logan county armed march cases until late in the summer and asked that Rever. J. E. Wilburn, charged with murder, be placed on trial June 12.

Prosecution counsel, however, before court opened, said they desired to continue trial of the armed march cases as soon as witnesses could be gathered. That, however, would probably take a week or ten days, they said.

Either Frank Keeney or Fred Mooney will be tried on a treason charge immediately after the murder cases of eight men in jail had been disposed of. C. W. Ogenton said in making the announcement.

The trial June 12, was agreed to by Judge J. M. Woods and defense counsel.

Huntington Outshines Rivals At Big Track Meet Saturday

Relative to the tri-state high school track meet held at Ashland Saturday and which was easily won by Huntington with 71 points while P. H. S. and Ashland were tied for second with 30 the Huntington Herald Dispatch has the following to say of the meet:

"With Dickie Donovan, local Mun-o-war, shooting the Red and Blues into a five-point lead at the beginning by racing over the space in the 100-yard dash within the limits of ten and one-fifth seconds and leaving his closest rival so far behind in the dust that it would have taken a high powered telescope to find him. Coach Stoddard's powerful eldritch path machine which traveled down to Ashland Saturday afternoon completely swamped Cerezo-Kenova. Portsmouth, Ireton and Ashland when they ran away with the dash by the score of 71 to 10.

It was surely a grand and glorious ending to Huntington high's season and it was a come-back that will never be forgotten by any of the two thousand track fans who had gathered Saturday afternoon from all sections of West Virginia, Ohio and Kentucky to take their last squint at a sward meet. Donovan-Vooker and Company lit the match to the fireworks before the affair had started. They grabbed the first seven events without hesitation and when the rest of the towns did finally open their eyes to what was going on around them the locals had run up a total of thirty markers and had the throttle wide open.

The 100-yard dash, pole vault, mile run, shot put, 220-yard dash, high jump, and the 440-yard dash came in such easy succession to the Huntington high hand that it seemed as though they had been ordered by Coach Stoddard's beforehand.

Against the fast-stepping local trackers the four others didn't have the slightest chance of taking the blue ribbon. When the Huntington lads trotted upon the field and began to warm up, her appearance against her opposers was like a highly spirited race horse against that of a slow-moving plow steed. Stoddard had his eye on the silverware in the judges' seat from the time they lapped the nifty loving cup.

Huntington took nine first places, giving a total of forty-five points; seven second places, giving a sum of twenty-one points; five third places netting five points. Portsmouth took one first, one second and two third places, making a total of ten points. Ashland found one first, place, one second place and two third places. Cerezo-Kenova got one second place and one third place and Ireton did the same."

BEFORE ANOTHER MONSTER CROWD REDS FIELD POORLY AND LOSE TO CHICAGO CUBS, 8 TO 7

Luque Driven Off The Mound

CINCINNATI, May 29.—Chicago won the closing game of the series from the Reds here Sunday after a close struggle, in which both teams battled hard and fielded poorly. Luque was knocked out of the box in the fourth inning. The home team attacked Alexander vigorously in the fourth and fifth innings, knocking him off the mound in the latter round. The Cubs won the game in the sixth on errors by Carey and Phelli and a hit by Grimes. Score:

BRAVES CHASE GRIMES

BROOKLYN, May 29.—Boston knocked Grimes out of the box in three innings yesterday, getting just enough runs to win by 5 to 4. Smith and Shriver stopped the Braves in the remaining innings. Oeschger blanked the dodgers up to the eighth, when two singles, an error by Ford and Wheat's homer, a drive over the right field wall, scored four runs. The score:

HOMEERS WIN FOR CARDS

ST. LOUIS, May 29.—Two home runs by Hornish and one by McHenry enabled the Cardinals to defeat Pittsburgh Sunday 4 to 3 and take the odd contest of the five-game series. The Cardinals were outbatted by the visitors, who were, however, unable to solve Purlen's deliveries with men on bases. An even dozen of the visiting players were left on bases. Score:

MARINES TO THE FORE

It has long been an axiom that when there was a difficult, dangerous job to be done for Uncle Sam the marines were the boys to do it. "First to fight," the motto which was given such prominence during the war, described these enterprising fellows, "half soldiers, half sailors," who have no special liking for bloodshed, but are ready to tackle the most disagreeable task and finish it in the shortest possible time.

As a matter of fact the marines have been the most practical of peacemakers, in many instances of threatened trouble bringing about the restoration of order through their moral influence and discipline without having to strike a blow. And it is this sort of work which has made the nation most proud of them. It is not surprising, therefore, to hear that troublesome conditions in China have resulted on the latest call for the services of the marines. A force of 175 marines and bluejackets is on the job at Peking, reinforcing the guard of the American legation. The other day a marine was wounded during the shooting.

Somebody in the navy department was very much wide-awake when a couple of United States cruisers were rushed to a strategic point in Chinese waters whence reinforcements could be sent to Peking on short notice. Developments such as are now taking place in China answer the arguments of those extreme pacifists who would do away entirely with national armaments.

Sixty years ago Charles Dickens wrote that the American government was remarkable for the protection it afforded its citizens, no matter in what part of the world they might be. It is a traditional American policy to protect American people whether engaged on official errands abroad or residing in foreign lands as private persons.

WOMAN'S PLACE

MOVING furniture is a woman's inalienable prerogative. It is something no man will do. He can live with the bed in one corner and the bureau in another from now till doomsday, but a woman will blush to think things haven't been changed around since she cleaned house last spring.

This demonstrates, of course, which sex is really superior. It certainly is a great relief to a tired fellow, coming in after dark, and considerably resolving not to light the light and wake the baby, to creep, not into bed, but into the unfriendly arms of a chair that he thought was still in the attic.

Perhaps he is a little inclined occasionally to grumble when he's asked to move the piano on an evening, because the boss of the ranch "never did like it over there." If he has not been married long, or is very brave—and the two really amount to much the same thing—he may remind the boss of a similar remark a month or so ago, when the piano was moved to its present location. But he'll get over that. He may be the one who puts a firm foot down on other matters, but the best authorities agree that when it comes to where things shall be placed husbands have no rights.

Unfortunately no one appears to have gathered statistics on the number of men, who, on moving into a new house, have held out as a dazzling inducement the cozy little room that is to be hubby's den. Of course you know what happens. First the sewing machine appears there—with a quite accidental air, as though it had just dropped in. Pretty soon the sewing basket is there, too. And then the sewing table, the sewing chair, the yarn, the socks—they're his socks, aren't they?—the thread, the needles and all the other things that go to make up the accoutrements of a really first class den. Hubby is wise if he is silent. For after all there's nothing to prevent him, after the den has been in running order for a month or so, from venturing in some night and volunteering to help on the embroidery.

CANADA AND MILITARISM

IF all the nations of the world were as hostile to militarism as a Toronto correspondent reports the Canadian people are, the chances of there being another war would be remote. Commenting on the Canadian government's action in withdrawing a request that had been made of parliament for $1,000,000 for the establishment of military training camps, the correspondent remarks that the attack on the proposed appropriation was led by two veterans of the World War, one a cripple. Canada's ex-service men are no more in favor of a large army than the other citizens. There is scarcely a trace of jingoism in the Dominion, Canada is almost disarmed; it spends less on military training than any other country in the world.

The most interesting thing in the situation is the Dominion's supreme confidence that there is not the slightest danger of attack by this country. She has implicit faith that there never will be war with the United States—an opinion that is shared this side of the border—and accordingly feel that there is no reason why she should provide defenses of any sort against us. There is probably not another such example in the world, but it is an ideal for which all nations should strive. The world could safely disarm if all international relationships were like those obtaining between Canada and the United States.

Russia may yet have to pour oil on the troubled international waters.

Germany faces another crisis. The government cannot print paper marks fast enough to meet the demand.

German school books do not refer to the war, probably because reference would necessarily be painful.

THE BIBLE IN PICTURES AND TEXT

By HELEN E. OHRENSCHALL

MOLECH

THE heathen nations, among which the children of Israel were going, worshipped an idol called Molech. As a sacrifice they put their little children into its arms where they were burned to death. They said they did this to please the idol. God told Moses if any man among his people should do this he should be put to death, stoned by the people. And if they should let him go without punishment, pretending not to know what he had done, God said He himself would punish him.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, May 29—A page from the diary of a modern Samuel Pepys: Up and to Park Avenue's society circus, mighty gay with fine ladies and innocent foolery. Talked awhile with Rita Weisman, who goes over the sea shortly to see her play done.

Thence to a magazine shop where came Dean Cornwell, the artist, just back from the Arabian desert, having made the trip for less than two hundred pounds. "Friend, too, that he is to decorate a lid of my poor fiction."

A merry, sunny afternoon and my wife lunched with me on an expensive portico, watching the crowds drift by. And we heard a man tell a woman, beautiful as wife was too, of having that day left prison for a wrong done by another.

In the evening to see "The Curious," well done by Doris Kenne, but Lord! the coughing all about us. Afterward to a supper place, fastidiously in the manner of a bathing beach, and came Ben Ames Williams and his wife and sat with us. So home and to bed, without prayers.

New York sweeps away its landmarks with ruthless abandon. France's tavern, where Washington bade farewell to his troops, has only a few touches of its original 18th century beauty. It is now merely one of the many eating places on the lower end of the island.

About the only bit of romance left is at No. 421 East 61st street. It is an old Colonial home known to New Yorkers as "Mount Vernon on the East River." It was the country residence of an aide de camp to General Washington and in 1876 was considered a day's drive from the heart of New York.

Sky-scrapers and massive apartment houses now cluster all about it, but the early charm has been maintained. It is open to the public and it is filled with the furniture and trappings of that period. Out-of-town sight-seers flock to the house, but the attendants say that very few New Yorkers drop in, although there is no admission.

Wolpin's, a more recent Broadway landmark, has moved to make way for a skyscraper. It was a little cafe on the corner above the Palace Theatre and was patronized by vaudeville and burlesque performers—the "mid" folk who are the merriest and the most under-paid in the profession.

At midnight when the place began to fill with those who came for puff-waffles and hot coffee, no spot in New York was exactly like it. There were ground and table tumblers, wire and rope walkers, three-devils of the trapeze, and Roman rings, rope-throwers, magicians, foot and hand jugglers, mouth and teeth whistlers and bird and dog act men.

Most of them started with the medicine shows on the wagon route and they spun great tales of villages from coast to coast. The night before I closed I heard a white-haired old fellow, whose nose had grown red from drink, tell of his misfortune: "I close Saturday. Rheumatism. For 10 years I had a flop proof wire act. Before that I did English chappie songs and doubled as a trick cyclist. I quit with $11. I've had a good time. I'll tell the world, and I wouldn't trade my raving, care-free life for Rockefeller's Jack." And I am quite certain he meant it.

Fifth Avenue is another street when storm slaps its heavily and the gutters race with rain. Traffic runs out of the street as quickly as the water rushes to the sewer holes. The avenue becomes deserted. Drenched pedestrians drop in doorways and the flower shops remove all their wares from out front. Even the big stone lions in front of the library seem to cover. Only the beggars—the blind, halt and the lame—remain on the pavement.

"Why don't you reform? The women are out to make the world better."
"I'm the raw material."—From Judge.

See Placard
"This garage man is something of a wag."
"How so?"
"I see he advertises air at cost."

Radio, Reeve and Romance—a combination that can't be broken. Read the marvelous mystery story, "On Wings of Wireless," in The Times Monday June 5.

Derailment At Riverton

Special To The Times
GREENUP, May 29.—The caboose of an east bound C. and O. train jumped the track above Riverton Saturday. A bad switch point was the cause of the accident. Traffic was delayed over the east bound track for several hours.

We Shall See

John Joseph, hustling Waller street produce man, left Sunday on a frogging expedition up Tugay Creek in Kentucky and unless John's planiscary he will have a lot of "green backs" on sale at his shop Wednesday morning as he expects to make a big killing.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

EVERETT TRUE

BY CONGO

IF YOU ARE WELL BREED
You do not burden others with your confidences and personal problems.
If you have been disappointed in a friend, or have had an unfortunate love affair, you are not eager to tell everybody about it.
You do not tell secrets simply because you have to tell someone, and then expect your confidant to keep what you could not.

Elbe Martin

No matter how young you feel, you're getting old when you tell somebody the same story over twice. The lightning rod agent must sigh for the good old "Jags."
